This month, we introduced December's word of the month: RESPONSIBILITY. Teachers used their "cool tool" activities to discuss with students the importance of making good choices and being dependable.

Good character traits are developed through the examples you set, as well as by direct teaching. Here are some suggestions to help your children learn RESPONSIBILITY.

Keep promises.

Give children chores at home.

When conflicts happen, deal directly with your child.

When you make a mistake, admit it and take care of it.

Demonstrate initiative and reward it in your children.

Cause leads to effect. Discuss the consequences of actions.

Offer your children choices.

Respect your children's needs and wants. But remember, you make the final decision.

*Remember, your child is watching what you do. Be sure to model the kind of responsible behavior you

New to Perry School ...

Our own Perry Community Angel Tree

If you find that you are in need of some Christmas help this season, please contact our office. All children in your household can be added to our Angel Tree with an ornament. Another person or family will take the ornament and purchase a Christmas gift for that child. The gift will be returned, wrapped, to the office at Perry School and be ready for pick up by December 18th. All requests are treated confidentially and with respect.

If you are interested in purchasing a gift for a child on our tree, please either come in with your student or have your student chose an ornament and bring it to the office. The office will have a sign out sheet for all ornaments that are removed from the tree.

Working as a community, we can help make the Christmas season a joy
