

What is NJHS??

NJHS is:

- A national recognition program established in 1929 by NASSP and currently found in public and private schools in every state as well as in schools in more than 70 countries overseas.
- A co-curricular activity that actively supports the educational goals of our school.
- An opportunity to involve chapter members in significant learning experiences, especially in the area of service.

“All students need motivation, rewards for effective performance, and goals to reach the next level of excellence. NJHS offers such opportunities.” -National Junior Honor Society Handbook, National Association of Secondary School Principals, Reston, VA. 2006 Edition

Selection Criteria for NJHS:

Please read ALL directions/requirements in this document before completing the application/essay. (Please note minimum point requirements.)

To be eligible for consideration a student must...

- Be in 7th or 8th grade.
- Have a cumulative GPA of 3.5 or above, from the 2018-19 school year. (Use the GPA printed on your 4th quarter report card from the 2018-19 school year.) If you do not know your GPA, please see your counselor before you fill out the forms.
- Fill out the application/essay. A rubric is provided.

Students MUST accumulate at least the minimum amount of points in every category listed below (see application/essay forms for more information) to be selected for membership in the NJHS.

It is extremely important that all directions are followed and all pages are complete as you fill out the application/essay. Students who earn point totals in the range of 36-60 will be considered for selection by the Faculty Council.

Hard copies of the NJHS Application/Essay forms can be found in the counseling area. Electronic forms can be found on our district website: www.district100.com, Schools, BCMS, Clubs, NJHS.

Scholarship is not the only characteristic emphasized by the National Junior Honor Society. A student must also demonstrate excellence in the areas of service, leadership, character, and citizenship. The Faculty Council will evaluate all eligible students in these areas.

SERVICE

The criterion for service is often defined in terms of performance and willing cooperation. The student contributes to the school, his or her classmates, and the community. He or she is willing to volunteer and is willing to provide assistance when needed.

LEADERSHIP

To the extent possible, the student assumes the role of leadership. The student abides by school rules and realizes that they are made for the common good. The student will act appropriately in situations even when it is not easy to do so. The student is honest and trustworthy, has a positive attitude, and is not a complainer.

CHARACTER

The student displays a high degree of honesty, responsibility, fairness, courtesy, and cooperation. The student takes responsibility for his or her actions, and respects others. The student is courteous and considerate to adults and peers, and is cooperative.

CITIZENSHIP

The student actively exhibits exemplary attitudes regarding freedom, justice, patriotism, and respect for fellow human beings.

Once a student has completed the minimum requirements, the National Junior Honor Society Faculty Council will meet to assess the candidates and select students for induction. This list will be presented to the principal for final approval. There is an appeals process in place for any student who wishes to appeal the decision of the Faculty Council. A student wishing to appeal the NJHS Faculty Council decision should contact the NJHS advisor to request the proper form. The student should turn in the completed form to the NJHS Advisor by the appropriate date.
